This year marks the 6th annual performance by the San Francisco Shakespeare Festival sponsored by the Brisbane Women's Club. Each year brings a different play written by Shakespeare. This year's performance, the Tempest, has been regarded as the pinnacle of Shakespeare's dramatic output. Widely believed to be his final and most autobiographical play, it utilizes the wisdom and understanding gained from a career as a highly regarded dramatist.

The story captures the essence of the human condition with its compelling and timeless themes. Forgiveness versus revenge, good versus evil, freedom versus captivity, and youthful impetuosity contrasted with aged wisdom are just some of the ideas that Shakespeare illuminates with his powerful and poetic storytelling skills.
